ASSIGNMENT 1

Name: Amedzi K. Peter

Index: CSC/19/01/1707

Course: Data Structures and Algorithm

Answers:

Question 1.

The output is 0-9

Question 2.

The push_ back() function is used to push elements into a vector from the back, after the size of the container is increased by 1.

Question 3.

It is important because it is used to modify the size of the vector to a specific value.

Question 4.

The vector array is resized to zero(0).